LOGAN DRY GOODS CO.

"Battle 'Em Up."
Danville Advocate.—Mr. J. C. Boner and family have removed from Garrard county to the Kinnaird property, on the Lexington pike, which was recently purchased by him. They will be welcomed to Boyle county. Mr. Boner is the father of Mrs. John Chesnut and Mr. Alfred Boner.

Will Not be a Candidate.
Having seen the name of Hon. Lewis L. Walker mentioned in the newspapers as a probable candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, we met on the street the other day and asked him in regard to the report. He replied: "You can say for me that I am not a candidate, and will not be, I am practicing law, and am not in politics."

Former Lancaster Man.
We acknowledge receipt of a "Happy New Year" card from our friend, Rev. J. R. Terrey, of Ellisworth, Kansas. The inscription reads: "We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best."

Back to Good Old Garrard.
Stanford Journal.—Mr. John Williams and family have moved back to Garrard, greatly to the regret of friends made during their stay in Lincoln. The Misses Williams, who have been conducting a mantua-making establishment in the Myers House flats, ask us to thank their patrons for the liberal patronage given them.

Moves to Richmond.
Dr. H. G. Sandlin and family left last week for Richmond where he will locate to practice medicine. During his stay in Lancaster, Dr. Sandlin made many friends. Beside being a splendid physician, he is a Christian gentleman and will be missed by his church and the community. The Record takes great pleasure in recommending him to the people of Madison.

More Truth Than Poetry.
A little girl had been looking at some pictures of angels and she turned to her mother and asked: "Mama, why are there no men in heaven?" "But there are men in heaven," replied the mother. "Then why is it," asked the child, "that we never see any pictures of angels with whiskers and mustache?" "True, but there are men in heaven," was the reply, "only they get in by a close shave."

A New Department.
J. R. Haselden has taken out the partitions on the second floor of his building, and fitted up same for his buggy department. He has bought a car load of buggies, surries, road wagons, etc., will arrive this week. Mr. Haselden is a true-born hustler, and has one of the largest establishments in Lancaster. He has worked his way up in the world by his own pluck and enterprise, and by honest dealing built up a splendid business.

Phil Hunter Company.
This troupe will appear at the court house on February 4, and the varied and novel attractions are pleasing the public all over the country. They deserve a large audience. Mr. Hunter's clever work in magic and ledger-main, astonishes the audience, his feats appearing beyond the natural. Mr. Carl Anderson delights the people with his drawings and superior work as a cartoonist and humorist, while Verne Moore is the best cornet soloist and pianist in the country. It is a great show. Reserved seats 50 cents, at McRoberts, general admission 25 cents, children, front seats, 15 cents.

Week of Prayer.
The Christian Alliance Week of Prayer has been observed in Lancaster this week as follows: Monday evening, Christian church, Dr. E. H. Pearce, subject The Church Militant; Tuesday evening, Methodist church, Rev. C. M. Chumbley, subject Foreign Missions; Wednesday, Presbyterian church, Rev. A. R. Moore, subject Home Missions; Thursday, Baptist church, Prof. J. E. Mannix, subject Special Work Among the Young.

A Good Idea.
An Anderson county farmer stuck a bottle upon a fence post on his farm by the side of the railroad track, as a tempting mark for the firemen on the passenger locomotive to throw at. No one fireman in twenty were able to resist the temptation, and having no stones to throw they would have to throw pieces of coal. In this way the farmer always had coal to burn, and he could well afford to replace the bottle when one happened to get hit. Moral: It is easier to cajole the coal train than to force it.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Fell in Cellar.
Saturday morning, as Mr. Charley Zimmer started to catch the train, he was badly bruised by falling in the cellar at the Garrard hotel lot. The fence extends full length of the front pavement, but it was so dark that Charley continued ahead after passing Batson's store and walked into the cellar near Arnold's stable lot. His face was badly cut in several places by old tin and rocks, and he was otherwise injured. This cellar cost the town eight hundred dollars not long ago, and it would be a good idea to have the place fixed. While on this subject, THE RECORD will again call attention of the Council to the need of a light at the depot. There's another trap there which is going to cost the tax payers a large wad if it is not looked after.

A. O. U. W.
The above order celebrated Christmas by having a big oyster supper. This lodge is one of the strongest and best in town, and the insurance feature is splendid. For a very small fee you can carry two thousand dollars insurance, and get the benefits of a good lodge too. The membership is increasing, and there is work at nearly every meeting. The following officers were elected last week: B. F. Walter, N. W., H. C. Hamilton, P. M. W., John Tatum, Overseer, Dr. Burnett, Guide, C. W. Graves, O. W., John Conn, I. W., John J. Barton, R. and T.

Now Is the Time.
Every man who owes his local merchant—or anybody for that matter—should make every possible effort to square accounts by the first of the new year. Merchants usually take an inventory of stock at the beginning of the new year, and also settle with their creditors. The fact that they are easy with you is no sign that they do not want their bills. They have paid out their money for their goods and expect their customers to remember their kindness. The fact that they made a profit on what they sold you is not to be considered in your reason for neglect, because they could have doubtless sold the same goods to some other for cash.

Get Busy.
The Record wishes to remind those of the Garrard county people appointed on committees to work up the Kentucky Exhibit at the St. Louis World's Fair, that it is high time they were up and about. It is now a foregone conclusion that the state will have a good show, so why not have our good county of Garrard in the push? We have more to "show" than the average county, so let's all put our shoulders to the wheel and have old Garrard at the head of the list. If the chairman or any member of the committees wish to make a call for a meeting, these columns are at your disposal. Don't put this off too long.

WALLACETON.

Henry Lawson and wife are planning to move to Illinois, in a few weeks.

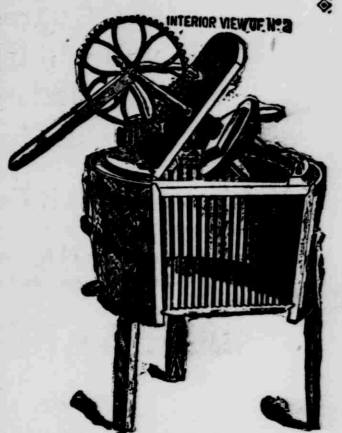

Harry Lamb, of Cleveland, Ohio, has been here visiting Miss Ella Bowlin, who is home on a vacation from Williamsburg, where she has been attending school.

Mrs. Addie Gentry reports a fine large turkey stolen on Sunday night before Xmas. We don't aim to tell tales out of school, but Mr. J. B. Wallace is said to have had just such a turkey for dinner Xmas day.

The proposition to extend our present mail route on from here to Berea, has been rejected by the "powers that be," which proves the "steenth time that the merits of an enterprise do not, by any means, always decide its fate.

While singing the hair from hogs' feet Ruth, the 10 year old daughter of Wallace Baker, caught her dress on fire and, becoming frightened, started to run. Her sister, Ada, two years older, caught her and held her, and screamed for their mother, who soon arrived, and with a wet cloth put out the flame. Although the dress was completely destroyed the girl was scarcely burned at all.

Paint Lick Bank.

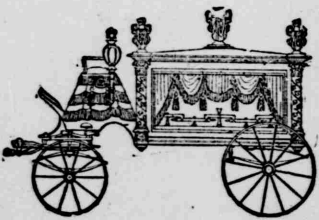

We publish in this issue the quarterly statement of the Paint Lick Bank. It shows the institution to be in fine shape, and reflects great credit upon its gentlemanly cashier, Mr. W. G. Kemper.

Goose Supper.

A number of the city officials gave a goose supper to the City Council and several invited friends, in the Police Court room Friday night. It was greatly enjoyed. The report that Councilman Beazley ate three geese is untrue. He hardly made that record.

He'd Be a Champ.

When a pretty girl pins a flower on a young man's coat, she always tilts her chin up and takes a look at it side ways, and the fellow who does not tumble then had best stay indoors when a funeral is passing for fear of being run over by the hearse.

Among the Injured.

Capt. Thos Austin, whose unfortunate accident was reported in last issue, is resting some easier, but suffers intense pain. Both bones in his leg were broken just above the ankle. Clever "Big Injun" Rothwell is still compelled to use crutches, never getting over his hurt at the Franklin Institute fire some months ago. While he comes to town most every day, yet he suffers much pain. Mrs. Williams, who fell down the steps at the home of her son-in-law, Rev. J. E. Wolford, is very much improved. Mrs. Mace Miller, who was badly burned at the home of her parents, Mr. Alex Bishop and wife, is much improved, having suffered great pain from her injuries. Mrs. Wade Walker, who has been quite ill at her home on Water street, is much improved. The editor of this paper, whose finger was "chawed" off by a printing press, is still at the old stand ready to wait on the friends and patrons of THE RECORD.

Continually Growing.

We earnestly request our advertisers to look over our list of subscribers. During the first two years of our management, we pruned and weeded out several hundred dead heads who had never paid the former proprietor and who had no idea of paying us. We have never asked a single person to take THE RECORD, and when this fact is remembered and we can show that the list has continually grown, it is a record of which we are justly proud. This paper is taken by the very best people in the county, and there is not one but who will pay for it without being dunned. While we could go out and get possibly five hundred more names, yet we know the people we have on our lists are the ones the merchants want to reach—the good paying honest people. So we consider our list the best any paper has ever had in the county. There is not a dead beat on our list, something few papers can claim. If a person wants THE RECORD and is the right kind of a man, he can get it and pay any time during the year, but we will be hanged if we are going to print papers for Tom, Dick and Harry just to say we have a large list. We print 1,500 papers each issue, which is a list not to be sneezed at, if you please.

Good Cheap Books.

Adolph and Arthur Joseph have a big lot of books, by the best authors, which they are selling at a bargain. They are clear print on good paper and are well bound. All the latest and best works can be had at very small cost. Call at J. Joseph's store and see them. They're going rapidly, t. f.

The City Council met last Monday night and allowed some claims. Mr. Tillett was given the workhouse for another year.

Fifty Four Interments.

Mr. S. B. Henry, sexton, tells The Record there were fifty-four interments in the Lancaster Cemetery last year, thirty-nine adults and fifteen children.

Died in Missouri.

Mr. Jno. M. Baker writes The Record from Plattsburg Mo., that A. C. Cook, formerly of this county, died there last week. Mr. Cook was here about a year ago, and is well known in Garrard.

Week of Prayer.

The Christian Alliance Week of Prayer has been observed in Lancaster this week as follows: Monday evening, Christian church, Dr. E. H. Pearce, subject The Church Militant; Tuesday evening, Methodist church, Rev. C. M. Chumbley, subject Foreign Missions; Wednesday, Presbyterian church, Rev. A. R. Moore, subject Home Missions; Thursday, Baptist church, Prof. J. E. Mannix, subject Special Work Among the Young.
